DEBORAH TAYLOR TATE
Director

The Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC) is required, pursuant to T.C.A. 55-10-419(e), to design an affidavit of indigency to assist the courts in determining the financial ability of a person to pay for an ignition interlock, transdermal monitoring device, or other alternative alcohol or drug monitoring device, if one is so ordered by the court. If a defendant is found to be indigent for such purposes, funds from the DUI Monitoring Fund may be used to pay for the costs associated with the use of such devices.

In order to help alleviate some of the concerns expressed by judges, clerks, probation officers, and the Department of Treasury, which processes payments from the DUI Monitoring fund, the AOC has revised the "Uniform Affidavit of Indigency for Purposes of DUI Monitoring Fund".

Changes to note:

- Defendant's date of birth is now requested
- A line for a "warrant" number is now available for use in applicable courts
- The signature line on the affidavit for either the Judge or Clerk was combined for clarity
- A box for the Judge to check if it is determined that the defendant is NOT indigent
- Expanded statements regarding how much the defendant is to pay (if determined to be financially ordered to pay a portion of the costs), how much is charged to the fund, and the total costs associated with the device
- Length of time the device is ordered to be used/worn
- Number of devices
- Type of device

Please note that this form does NOT replace the court order wherein the device is ordered to be used/worn, and which contains other details of length to be used/worn or type of device. The portions on this form are to assist interested parties regarding responsibility of payment of the use of the device.

Also, note that the provider must continue to send a copy of the signed court order requiring use of a device, along with the affidavit and order regarding indigency determination, to the Department of Treasury in order to be reimbursed by the DUI Monitoring Fund. This reminder is contained in the footnote on page two.

In addition, the poverty guidelines have been updated for 2018.
